

A New Standard for a New Decade

Demonstrating the NEW Pruning Best Management Practices

Friday, March 13, 2020 • 8:30 am - 4:00 pm

- 8:30 Registration and Check In
- 9:00 Welcome - Raquel Falco (City of Glendora)
- 9:05 To Prune or Not to Prune? Why? - John Huddleston (BCMA, RCA - Precision Tree Experts)
- 9:50 Tree Growth Regulators - Chris Fleming (QAL, Certified Arborist and Utility Specialist - Davey Resource Group)
- 10:30 The Changes to the ANSI A300 Pruning Standard - Cris Falco (BCMA, RCA, PCA - West Coast Arborists)
- 11:05 Interpreting the Pruning Specification/ Field Demonstration with Shoestring Acacia - John Huddleston (BCMA, RCA - Precision Tree Experts)
- 12:00 Lunch
- 12:30 Tree Care and Wildlife - Gillian Martin (Cavity Conservation Initiative)
- 1:00 Proper Pruning Cuts, Pruning Tools, and Tool Sterilization - Mark Porter (Certified Arborist - Marks Tree Service & Consulting)
- 1:30 Proper Palm Maintenance - Donald Hodel (UC Cooperative Extension Emeritus)
- 2:10 Field Example: American Elm - John Huddleston
- 3:05 Field Example: Eucalypt Reduction Pruning - John Huddleston
- 4:00 Earn 6.5 CEUs from the International Society of Arboriculture

Presented by the
Inland Urban Forest Council

Location: Sims Tree Learning Center
6111 Appaloosa Ave.,
Riverside, California 92509

$75

Includes CEUs, lunch and snacks

Register at:
www.inlandurbanforestcouncil.org

For questions, please contact IUFC at
(310) 562-4904

<https://inlandurbanforestcouncil.org/pruning-2020>

TREE HEALTH SPECIALISTS, Inc.

